

Employees who are summoned for jury duty or to testify are entitled to receive their regular wages for the time spent in court. This policy applies to all full-time employees. For more information, please contact the Human Resources Department.